Built2Go License Agreement

On behalf of Big Resources, Inc., we would like to thank you for your recent purchase of unique, high-quality turnkey templates from http://www.built2go.com. We hope you are as pleased with your purchase as we are to bring it to you.

All materials available as part of your Built2Go membership are copyrighted works of authorship to Built2Go.com and its parent company Big Resources, Inc. exclusively and are also protected under applicable database laws. Built2Go.com and Big Resources, Inc. retains ownership of all items available with the http://www.built2go.com membership and any copies of it, regardless of the form in which the copies may exist. This license is not a sale of the original Built2Go.com materials or any copies.

By accessing any Built2Go.com materials, you agree to the following terms and conditions outlined throughout this agreement, detailed on http://www.built2go.com, and any and all terms and conditions as may be updated by Built2Go.com and Big Resources, Inc. from time to time. Such agreement is either on your own behalf or on behalf of any corporate entity which employs you or which you represent. All terms of this agreement are applicable to you, and any reader of this agreement, and any corporate entity which employs you or which you represent.
The Built2Go.com license attached to your purchase grants you the right to use materials accessed from the Built2Go.com collection for personal, corporate, and commercial use, subject to the following limitations and terms and conditions:

1. Personal Use – The Built2Go.com license grants you the right to use materials accessed from http://www.built2go.com for personal use on websites owned by the purchaser of the account directly with little to no modifications. REQUIREMENT: Users of these materials must retain the copyright notification and link to http://www.built2go.com that included with each and every programmed template.

2. Corporate Use - The Built2Go.com license grants you the right to use materials accessed from http://www.built2go.com on a corporate website/entity owned by the purchaser of the account directly with little to no modifications. REQUIREMENT: Users of these materials must retain the copyright notification and link to http://www.built2go.com that included with each and every programmed template.

3. Client Use – The Built2Go.com license grants you the right to use the materials accessed from http://www.built2go.com for clients, friends and family, or various corporate entities upon significant modifications of the materials accessed from Built2Go.com. If you intend on using any of the graphics that you download from BoxedArt.com as products you wish to sell to clients, then you must make significant modifications to the materials. Our materials are intended to be used as a starting point for your developed sites, so there must be some significant modification beyond pure content/text/picture changes. What this means exactly, is that you must modify the color, shape, or look of the template, such that upon an initial glance, it is not obvious that the template was accessed from Built2Go.com.

   If you are unable to so, or do not wish to perform these modifications, then it is still possible to use our templates for your clients, family or friends, or a corporate entity, however you will need to purchase a new license for each individual or entity that you develop a site for. You can find client pricing at the below URL:

http://www.built2go.com/CustomInvoices/MembershipClient.html

When you purchase a license for a client, all customers must submit the receipt of this license purchase to licensing@built2go.com along with your username, the name of your client, and the URL where the licensed material will be used. Thereafter, the required license purchase will be noted with your account. The additional benefits this license provides, is that once you purchase it for your client, you may then provide that particular client with as many designs as they may need with little or no modification. However these items may NOT be distributed or displayed through any form of archive or automated shopping or download system, and must be custom modified for each client.

Additionally, each employee or agent of any commercial or corporate entity must have their own separate license to use the materials accessed from Built2Go.com.

REQUIREMENT: Users of these materials must retain the copyright notification and link to http://www.built2go.com that included with each and every programmed template.

4. Restriction: This license does not afford you the right to redistribute and/or resell any of the items listed above for any purpose. Redistribution and reselling restrictions include, but are not limited to: attempting to resell any product you purchase or acquire through your membership at http://www.built2go.com, simply giving away any of the merchandise you purchase (i.e. your friends will have to purchase their own graphics), making on textual or photo changes and then attempting to resell or redistribute these graphics, or any other method of simply providing the exact same merchandise you purchased to others. Additionally, our products may by no means be displayed in any catalog or archive format.

   In other words, you may NOT present our graphics, scripts, or identity packages in a form that would lead others to believe it is your own, or to serve as a starting point for clients to select the product they would like you to customize, nor may it be displayed in a portfolio which is intended to be representative of your work. The reason these items cannot be displayed under these conditions is because this action would violate the aforementioned limitation that requires you to significantly alter the layout and actual design of our graphics before they can be displayed or resold in this fashion, or, if this you do not modify the graphics this way, you must purchase a license for each client.
